

BACHELOR OF COMMERCE IN LAW DEGREE

410 Credit Qualification registered on the NQF at level 7

SAQA QUALIFICATION ID 98933

The Bachelor of Commerce in Law will distinguish you not only in a competitive business world, but also within the legal fraternity.

Duration and Language

Minimum duration to complete: Three years.

Tuition in English.

Mode of delivery: Distance learning.

Focus of the Qualification

This qualification was developed after consultation with stakeholders within the law fraternity and higher education institutions, as well as specialists in the field of commerce and industry.

The focus is to equip students with an introduction to South African law and commerce, its procedures and the necessary skills to enable them to apply this knowledge in the South African legal/business context.

The curriculum is designed to equip students with a set of core competencies (knowledge, skills and attitude) necessary to pursue a career in law and/or commerce. Furthermore, it provides the student with the knowledge base, theory, methodology of discipline and application relevant to the field of study. The electives allow for specialisation in the different fields of law and commerce.
